SUBJECT: PBA Contract

Attached is the proposed 2013 PBA contract. This contract represents a very good compromise of salary and labor issues and will help set the tone for future contracts and long-term savings for the Community.

The goals of the contract were to provide a reasonable salary increase to the officers and to also restructure salary and wages going forward in such a way to begin to reduce the financial impact on the community. This goal was accomplished in a way that maintains certain levels as well as certain expectations but it also clearly sets a new perspective for going forward.

Over the next 5 years there it is expected that we could easily see a turn over of 20 percent or more of our police department personnel. This turnover will amount to not only new savings because of having a reduced wage for a new employee but will also provide additional savings for items that will no longer be part of the salary and benefit offerings.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The agreement is a three-year agreement that provides salary increases of 1.75, 1.75 and 1.9 percent.
- It provides a new salary and wage scale for both Patrol and Sergeant. The new scale takes the prior 6, or 7 step scale and stretches it out to 12 steps. It also provides a step plan for sergeants which also recognizes not only the promotion but unlike most communities it provides steps to get to the top of the scale and not just a single salary.
- It provides for the elimination of longevity going forward. Thus all new employees will no longer have a longevity provision that pays from between 1-6% on top of their salary for longevity. (Ultimate savings of up to $350,000 per year in today's dollars when fully implemented)

- Unreimbursed medical expenses. The former contract called for $900 per year with $350 towards vision. The vision has been rolled into the $900 per year thus eliminating that as well as the $900 has been reduced to $450 for any employee hired after January 1, 2013.
- Reduction in the permitted use of family illness provisions and more reliance on the language of the state and federal family leave act.
- Legitimizes the position of corporal.

The remainder of the changes in the contract largely reflect either selecting language from one of the prior contracts or slightly modifying said language to make it clear as to what the benefit would be.

I believe that while there are always additional items that could have been negotiated in a contract this contract reflects significant movement by the PBA towards long term cost savings for the towns. I strongly recommend the adoption of this contract, which has been endorsed by the local PBA.

Lastly, I would be remiss to not thank Kathy Monzo for her help in reaching the final settlement as well as the direction of the personnel committee in helping set some lofty goals.

B. The normal work week for all police officers is forty (40) hours per week.

C. Patrol Bureau Schedule

The normal work day for all police officers assigned to patrol duties in the Patrol Bureau is twelve (12) hours per day and the Patrol Bureau schedule will be a 2 on/2 off - 3 on/2 off - 2 on/3 off schedule, which is commonly referred to as the "Pitman Schedule." For police officers assigned to the Patrol Bureau, normal working hours shall consist of a twenty-eight (28) day duty cycle, during which the officer assigned to shift duty shall work fourteen (14) normal days and be off for fourteen (14) days.

D. Compensatory Time

1. Each officer assigned to a 28 day cycle per year (13.04 cycles per year) of shift duty shall be entitled to one hundred ten (110) hours of compensatory time per year in order that the shift work be equivalent to that which would have been worked in a forty (40) hour work week year. Officers must use thirty-six (36) hours of compensatory time by July 1st of the calendar year.

2. It is understood that officers will be provided with training during normal work hours, and if no training time can be provided during an officer's normal work hours, officers will be compensated accordingly in the form of compensatory time, hour for hour, which shall be immediately added to their time bank.

3. Any officer transferred to the 28 day duty cycle of shift duty from another bureau within the police department shall immediately receive compensatory time provided on a pro-rated basis.

E. On-Call/Standby Time

1. There shall be an on-call officer assigned to each twelve (12) hour patrol shift. On-call shall be in accordance with Departmental General Orders. It is understood that the officer listed on-call shall remain on-call for the entire patrol shift. Each officer assigned to the Patrol Bureau and who is assigned to the on-call rotation shall receive an additional thirty-six (36) hours of compensatory time.

2. Sergeants assigned to the Patrol Bureau will not be provided with the thirty-six (36) hours of compensatory time, because they will not be placed in the on-call rotation.
3. Officers will be given the one hundred ten (110) hours of compensatory time and the thirty six (36) hours of on-call time, provided in the form of compensatory time, for a total of one hundred forty six (146) hours of compensatory time. Officers shall receive the one hundred forty six (146) hours of compensatory time at the beginning of each calendar year (January 1st).

F. Carry Over Time

Officers will be permitted to carry over a total of forty-eight (48) hours of any combination of unused time off, excluding personal time, to the following calendar year. Officers attending one (1) or two (2) week courses will not receive any additional compensation or compensatory time for attending school on their days off

This eighty four (84) hours requirement does not apply to Detectives and Specialty Unit officers whose schedules are changed based upon workload and other mitigating factors, which are changes caused by situations occurring beyond the normal control of the police department, but do not include manpower shortages created by sickness. In the event of manpower shortage created by sickness, then the on-call officer shall be responsible for covering the shift. If, by reason of schedule changes, it becomes necessary to summon to duty or to keep on duty members of the department other than during their regularly scheduled duty assignments, they shall be compensated for all duty performed above and beyond the normal work day by extra duty pay as set forth in Article IV, Section A & E.

2. If the officer listed "on-call" is recalled to duty, than that officer may seek a replacement that is willing to cover the vacated shift. That officer will have the same opportunity for compensation, at a rate equal to two (2) times their normal hourly rate, for covering the shift.
