

SNB Report November

SNB did a presentation for the residents of 300 Elm Court. The presentation focused on how to protect against elderly scams. The presentation was well received and provided the residents with valuable information to protect themselves against such scams.

SNB monitored a lockdown drill at the Princeton Charter School.

SNB monitored a lockdown drill at the Princeton Academy of the Sacred Heart.

SNB met with the PTO group of the Stuart Country Day School and did a presentation on social media trends and internet safety.

SNB did a presentation at the Stuart Country Day School for the 5th and 6th grade students on cyber-bullying.

SNB met with representatives of the Princeton Day School to discuss and review their emergency protocols for active shooter and shelter in place.

SNB met with the residents of Princeton Community Village to discuss various concerns the residents had such as speeding on Bunn Dr. and how to report suspicious activity.

SNB met with a group of 14-15 year old students at the Lewis School and spoke about various topics including internet safety and social media trends.

SNB went to the Friends School and spoke to the students about internet safety.

