Borough Council recessed into closed session.

At 7:32 P.M. Council reconvened into open session.

Mayor Trotman asked all present to rise for Agenda Item D, Salute to the Flag.

Mayor Trotman read Agenda Item E, Approval of Minutes.

Presented for approval were the minutes of the open session of July 28, 2009.

Councilman Goldfarb moved to approve the minutes of the open session of July 28, 2009, Council President Koontz seconded, and Council approved unanimously.

Mayor Trotman read Agenda Item F, Public Presentation, and asked if anyone present wished to address the Council with an issue not on the agenda.

Seeing no one from the public, Mayor Trotman closed the public portion.

Mayor Trotman read Agenda Item G, Correspondence (1) — Tax Rate – Charlotte O’Connell – Property Owner/Patton Avenue.

Mayor Trotman announced that Ms. O’Connell had asked her letter be read into the minutes. Noting that Ms. O’Connell’s correspondence was on the agenda, Mayor Trotman stated that Ms. O’Connell’s comments were now part of the record, as follows:

Aug. 16, 2009

Dear Mildred,

It was nice to get the Boro update letter with my tax statement. I was delighted to see that you had held the tax rate steady. I was proud of you, using attrition to decrease the ranks of workers. Imagine my dismay to see that my taxes had increased 5.5%!!!

I don’t know how everyone else in Princeton does it, but we are being crushed by the taxes. I have a 2100 square feet house, it is not a palace. It is on a nice lot, but it is not a palace. I have renovated it nicely, I think, but it is not a palace. I have decorated it nicely, I think, but it is not a palace. I would like to add energy saving devices like solar or geo, but I am afraid of adding “value” to my home, it is not a palace.

At taxes of $16,400 I should have a palace.

Very seriously,

Charlotte O'Connell

PS I will also send this to council and would like it read into the minutes at the next boro meeting. Thank you.

Mayor Trotman read Agenda Item G, Correspondence (2) — Citizen Finance Advisory Committee – Jenny Crumiller, Resident/ Library Place.

Mayor Trotman asked Mr. Bruschi to address Ms. Crumiller's letter, for the record. Mr. Bruschi stated that Borough Finance Committee is seeking a way to involve citizens in the 2010 budget process.

Councilman Goldfarb suggested the Borough process should be more open and participatory.

Council President Koontz noted that any citizen committee that Council appoints must be broadly representative of all segments of the community; this includes retail merchants, commuters, nonprofit sector and so forth.

Councilman Martindell listed two benefits: (1) an interested, informed citizen committee conversant with municipal finance can explain the budgetary process and provide transparency and political palatability to the public; and (2) movement toward better financial management by identifying issues and making decisions. Councilman Martindell encouraged Council to solicit townspeople who are knowledgeable on municipal finance for the citizen committee. He questioned how such a committee would actually function.

Mayor Trotman asked Mr. Bruschi to return to Council with recommendations for formation of a citizen finance committee.

Ms. Crumiller requested a meeting with her ad hoc committee, the finance committee, and Mr. Bruschi to define next steps.

Councilman Goldfarb reversed this idea— Borough Finance Committee meet with ad hoc committee (where staff members Mr. Bruschi and Chief Finance Officer Sandra Webb would not be expected to attend during exploratory phases).

Ms. Crumiller agreed to invite Finance Committee members David Goldfarb, Roger Martindell, and Kevin Wilkes to an advisory meeting at Borough Hall. She also encouraged members of the public to participate.

Jack Morrison of the ad hoc committee proposed that citizens work in tandem and be accessory to Council initiatives.

Henry Landau, of the ad hoc committee thanked fellow merchants for input to date. He observed the “snail’s pace” of Borough cost cutting in health care and telephone expenses.

Councilman Wilkes clarified that Mr. Landau wants a census of Borough employees to circulate to health care vendors. Mr. Bruschi deferred such census until union negotiations are in progress—it is too late for the 2009–2010 health contracts.

Councilman Goldfarb stated the cost is in the coverage, not the provider. Borough health coverage (led by the police union) is markedly generous.

Mr. Landau suggested rebidding phone services. Councilman Martindell proposed that staff provide a phone bill breakdown of usage to the citizen committee to do with as they like.

Dudley Sippelle, 375 Nassau Street, commented that citizens might also investigate non-fiscal areas such as public safety and police staffing/personnel.

Councilman Goldfarb welcomed citizen involvement of all varieties.

Mayor Trotman read Agenda Item H, Report (1) — Princeton Senior Resource Center (PSRC) Annual Report – Susan Hoskins, Director.

Ms. Hoskins wondered what their group should call itself: Do people not turn to them as a “senior resource center”? First, they take pride in serving the senior community, their families, and caregivers. Second, emphasizing resource, they help people in the second half of life toward volunteering and encore careers.

Ms. Hoskins referred to her written report and requested questions and comments. She listed some highlights of 2008-09:

- Growth despite challenging times
- Undertaking Crosstown transportation system (first ever brochure)
- Monthly prime time cable TV-30 show
- Computer/internet/Website assistance
- Collaboration with police and health departments
- Increase in volunteers at PSRC.

Ms. Hoskins asked for Council’s support to repair PSRC’s sound system and floor for safety and good use of the facility. Christopher Budzinski, Borough Engineer, stated that his department is currently requesting Request For Proposals from architects for floor designs. Ms. Hoskins said repair soon—with more disruption of services—is better than August 2010 and a smoother closing of the facility. She will work in concert with Mr. Budzinski to schedule repairs.

Ms. Hoskins emphasized transportation limitations and the need for Free B daytime routes for better access to PSRC.

August 25, 2009

Council President Koontz hoped that Ms. Hoskins and PSRC would clarify the two upcoming flu clinics/inoculations (traditional and H1N1) for program participants. Ms. Hoskins replied that information is distributed by print and about 12 announcements on TV-30, with emphasis that traditional vaccine does not protect against H1N1.

Councilman Wilkes congratulated Ms. Hoskins and staff on the smooth transition of management of Crosstown.

Councilman Goldfarb noted the importance of informing police of services available from PSRC.

Council President Koontz moved to accept the PSRC annual report and Councilman Wilkes seconded. Council agreed unanimously four to zero.

Mayor Trotman read Agenda Item H, Report (2) — Monthly Police Report — Police Lieutenant David Dudeck.

RESOLUTION 2009-R229
OF THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF PRINCETON
APPROVING THE MONTHLY POLICE REPORT

WHEREAS, the Borough Police Administration have prepared a comprehensive report detailing the police activity for the month of June 2009; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor and Council reviewed said report at their Regular Meeting attended by Police Lieutenant David Dudeck and made various inquiries of Lt. Dudeck.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and Council hereby accept the June 2009 Monthly Police report prepared by the Borough Police Administration.

Lt. Dudeck reported there was nothing remarkable in the June 2009 police report. He observed that the police “year” begins in September, when they identify resources and recognize challenges associated with the beginning of the school year and return of Princeton University students.

Councilman Martindell left the meeting at 8:48 P.M.

Lt. Dudeck reported that the Rosedale traffic situation is stable; it is “wait and see” for September.

Councilman Wilkes moved to accept the police report, Council President Koontz seconded, and Council accepted unanimously three to zero.

Mayor Trotman read by title Agenda Item I, Old Business (1) — Public Hearing and Adoption: Ordinance 2009-22, AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 10A “CONSTRUCTION SITE MAINTENANCE” OF THE CODE OF THE BOROUGH OF PRINCETON NEW JERSEY, 1974.

Mr. Budzinski explained that the amendment to Ordinance 2009-22 simply eliminates a Dumpster reference previously approved. Ordinance 2009-23, to be discussed next, establishes a nominal fee for Dumpsters in a right-of-way.

Councilman Wilkes moved to adopt Ordinance 2009-22; Councilman Goldfarb seconded.

Mayor Trotman opened the public discussion and asked if anyone wished to address Council on this issue. Seeing no one, she closed the public discussion and returned to Council. Hearing no comment, Mayor Trotman called for a roll call vote. Borough Clerk called the roll. Council members Koontz, Goldfarb, and Wilkes voted in the affirmative. Mayor Trotman proclaimed the ordinance adopted.

Mayor Trotman read by title Agenda Item I, Old Business (2) — Public Hearing and Adoption: Ordinance 2009-23, AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 28, “STREETS AND SIDEWALKS” OF THE CODE OF THE BOROUGH OF NEW JERSEY, 1974.

Council members noted an error in the title of the ordinance, “Borough of New Jersey.”

Council President Koontz moved to adopt Ordinance 2009-23; Councilman Goldfarb seconded.

Mayor Trotman opened the public discussion and asked if anyone wished to address Council on this issue. Seeing no one, she closed the public discussion and returned to Council. Hearing no comment, Mayor Trotman called for a roll call vote. Borough Clerk called the roll. Council members Koontz, Goldfarb, and Wilkes voted in the affirmative. Mayor Trotman proclaimed the ordinance adopted.

Council President Koontz wondered when a right-of-way issue will come before Council. Mr. Bruschi said there was no indication from the county.

Mayor Trotman read Agenda Item J, New Business (1–9) — Resolutions 2009-R230, 2009-R231, 2009-R232, 2009-R233, 2009-R234, 2009-R235, 2009-R236, 2009-R237, and 2009-R238 as follows:
