INFORMATION ON FILING A HISTORIC PRESERVATION PLAN APPLICATION

The application must be accompanied by the required fees.

Please submit SEPARATE checks for fees and escrow, made payable to PRINCETON.

In order to ensure expeditious processing of an application, the applicant should be careful to comply fully and promptly with all requirements. The application shall not be deemed complete until the filing or COMPLETE notice together with requisite fees.

If the application is the subject of a preservation plan only, the Historic Preservation Officer has 15 calendar days to review the application for completeness. If the application is part of a development application, the administrative officer has a 45 calendar-day review period.

Applications shall be assigned for hearing in the order in which they appear on the calendar (Agenda), except that any application may be advanced for hearing by order of the Commission for appropriate reasons.

Applications must be on file and available for public inspection at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing.

Submission of a complete and timely application DOES NOT GUARANTEE being placed on the agenda for the next meeting.

The applicant must file a zoning permit application with the preservation plan application. This is to insure that there are no variances in the proposed plan, and that the appropriate application is submitted.

If the submitted survey plan is prepared by other than a licensed surveyor, the applicant must furnish the Commission with an affidavit stating that all the information shown thereon is correct. IT IS THE APPLICANT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO PRE-PACKAGE THE APPLICATION FOR SUBMISSION.

All preservation plans must be submitted with the minimum scale of one inch equals fifty feet and while application forms may be bound, all plans must not be. Architectural plans must be at the minimum a scale of 1/8".

ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

Upon the application being deemed complete, and, if it is determined by the administrative officer or her designee that the preservation plan conforms to the requirements of this Historic Preservation Ordinance, as the case may be, and will not have a significant impact, the administrative officer with the concurrence by the chairman of the Historic Preservation Commission may approve the application.

Each complete application shall be numbered serially and be placed upon the calendar of the Historic Preservation Commission by the Secretary for a public hearing. The Secretary of the Commission will notify the applicant of the hearing date and supply suggested forms and/or instructions for notice to interested parties.

APPLICATIONS WHICH ARE THE SUBJECT OF A DEVELOPMENT APPLICATION (SITE PLAN OR SUBDIVISION)

An application which is the subject of a site plan or subdivision and whose site is located within a historic preservation overlay zone or a historic preservation buffer zone must file in addition to the site plan and subdivision application, an application for Historic Preservation Review. These applications will be subject to the forty-five day completeness review period.

THE PUBLIC HEARING

At the hearing, an individual may appear for her or himself or be represented by an attorney at law of the State of New Jersey (it is always recommended that applicants seek legal advice in the preparation of the application).

Regular meetings of the Commission are generally held on the second Monday of each month at 4 PM in the Princeton Municipal Complex, 400 Witherspoon Street. Please check with the Secretary of the Commission for the scheduled dates.

Filed applications which have been postponed for hearing by the applicant in excess of two (2) months, shall resubmit new sets of application and related documents.

THE OFFICE OF HISTORIC PRESERVATION WILL FURNISH FORMS UPON REQUEST AND IS PREPARED TO GIVE GENERAL ADVICE CONCERNING A SUBMISSION. NEGLECT OR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THESE INSTRUCTIONS SHALL BE DEEMED SIGNIFICANT CAUSE FOR THE COMMISSION TO REFUSE TO HEAR AN APPLICATION.

The Historic Preservation Commission shall conduct a hearing on all preservation plans not approved administratively within 45 days of the Administrative Officer's referral of the application to the Commission.

At least 10 days before the date set for hearing, the Secretary of the Commission will give the applicant written notice of the hearing date.

Applicants proposing demolition of a structure must adhere to the ordinances' requirements regarding demolition.
